

International Criminal Court
YUNMUN XXXIV

Dear ICC Delegates,

It is our honor to welcome you to YUNMUN XXXIV! Our names are Micah Eizen and Rivka Krause and we are excited to serve as your co-chairs of the United Nations International Criminal Court (ICC) at this year's conference! Here's a little bit about each of us:

My name is Micah Eizen. After being born and raised in Detroit, Michigan and attending Yeshivat take on a role as a prosecutor, defense lawyer, or witness as they investigate an international crime, allowing them to explore all aspects of international law. Over the course of the conference, you will prepare for, and execute, the mock trial case that will be provided for you.
