Program description: The MA in Psychology at Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology of Yeshiva University is a 36-credit master's degree in psychology only available for students who were admitted to one of Ferkauf's doctoral programs. Students can choose from a list of approved graduate courses in psychology (see courses below). Students need a passing grade of B or better and must maintain a 3.0 GPA.

Transfer credit policy: Students are allowed up to 12 transfer credits. The courses must be graduate level and the student must receive a B or better grade for the course to transfer. Ferkauf faculty must also approve course equivalence before transfer.

GPA Requirement: 3.0

Admissions:

A student admitted to a doctoral program who wishes to receive an MA degree must apply for admission to the Master of Arts Psychology program (36 credits). Students must be counseled by their advisors into making an admissions application.
