STUDENTS

The integrity of the ~~educator-student~~ relationship is the foundation ~~of the 8 Q L Y H Educational~~ mission. These relationship ~~vest~~ considerable trust in the educators who educate, supervise, evaluate and mentor students. Given the inequality in such relationships, it is imperative that the integrity of the educational process ~~is not~~ be jeopardized by creating a ~~conflict~~ of interest or impairing the learning environment ~~for~~ the student involved in the relationship, as well as ~~other~~ students. Accordingly, all educators are prohibited from pursuing or engaging in a romantic relationship and/or sexual conduct with any student (whether undergraduate or graduate) over whom the educator currently has ~~an~~ educational, supervisory, academic or mentoring responsibilities.

Moreover, given that ~~undergraduate~~ students are particularly vulnerable ~~to the~~ fundamental asymmetric nature of ~~romantic~~ relationships and/or sexual conduct with educators, all educators are prohibited from pursuing or engaging in a romantic relationship and/or sexual conduct with any undergraduate student, regardless of whether ~~the~~ educator currently exercises or expects to exercise ~~any~~ educational, supervisory, academic

Further, both parties should be making alternative educational, supervisory, academic or mental arrangements necessary to protect the student against academic, professional or financial hardship.

EMPLOYEES

Romantic relationships and/or sexual conduct between supervisors and their employees are also strongly discouraged. The University recognizes the potential for a conflict of interest when a romantic relationship and/or sexual conduct occurs between a supervisor and his or her employee.

Such relationships and/or conduct also have the inherent potential to create an uncomfortable or hostile work environment for those involved in the relationship and/or conduct.
