

Use of Yeshiva University Marks by Student Organizations and Clubs

Yeshiva University recognizes that student organizations and clubs enrich student life and provide many opportunities for learning and leadership development. Because they are valued components of our community, official student organizations and clubs in good standing and recognized by the University and/or shield design marks YU Marks order to proudly express their connection to the University:

This right to use the YU Marks