

R. Lifshitz

My Father (in-Law), My Rebbe

Chaim I. Waxman

It is difficult especially in
to say that he operationaliz
recited every

אם
and
the
mo
sav
gu
me
as ים
sel
wh
ins
eve
lett
fol
ma

ind

we

ny

"fi

bef

ove

ear

dre

ny

inv

sur

the

The

guc

lav

her

wc

Pa

ny

wi

po

pe

an

Most notably, he family members
adopted a string
matters relating fasting on any f
assured them the circumstances!

בלה

pros
If an wou
them
wou
and
spiri
he di

המת

He v
calle
diffi
lay p
stude
arrar המת

ה ה
av
hi
ill
K
fo

ה
lit
di
ev
60
No

ה
es
ra ה
ac
te
wl
an
fre
in
ta ה

His dedic
when doi
to say a s
his illness
finally be kept hopi
occasions
with their

He was, of course, much careful with a "lighter" m its fullest. For example, a ma'ariv, on the evenings ran home to light the men (Shkop) would run run ho

He
m
su
be
tit
fo
th
ca
ev

And with

observanc

and grand

and relati

He was a

relationsh

ha-moed

children,

man, wom

איש ישיבה